

ENVIRONMENTAL AESTHETICS: THEORY, RESEARCH, AND APPLICATION.

Jack L. Nasar (Ed). New York: Cambridge University Press.1992

How do people react to the visual character of their surroundings? This book explores theory and data on preferences in the visual environment, and addresses the practical application of aesthetic criteria in design, planning and public policy as well.